Dantzick, May 8.

THe Letters we receive from Poland tell us, That that King intends to go into the Field in Perſon this Summer, and that the Queen and Prince Alexander, the King's Eldeſt Son, do raiſe each a Regiment at their own Charge, and that the King will give 100000 Crowns out of his Patrimonial Eſtate, towards the providing a Train of Artillery; That the three Regiments of Horſe, raiſed by Prince Lubomirski for the Emperor's Service, are on their March towards the Frontiers of Hungary, to joyn the Imperial Troops commanded by Major-General Schutz, and that beſides theſe, the King of Poland has reſolved to raiſe for the Emperor's Service eight hundred Huſſars, who are Armed with Lances. There are Letters which ſay That the Cham of Tartary is in the Field; That he has divided his Army into two Bodies, the one being Poſted near Caminiec, and the other deſigned to fall into Sileſia.

Venice, May 9. The two young Princes of Neubourg are arrived here from Rome, and are Lodged with the Emperor's Ambaſſador; from hence they intend to return for Germany. The ſaid Ambaſſador had this Week an Audience of the Senate, to acquaint them with the League lately concluded between his Imperial Majeſty and the Crown of Poland.

Genoua, May 12. The ſeventh Inſtant Sailed from hence the Dutch Men of War and Merchant-Ships, in all nine ail, bound for Smirna and Scandaroon. The eighth arrived here the Sarah and Elizabeth from Villa-Franca, and the 10th the John, Captain Tremblet Commander, from Cadiz; the latter met, about 15 Miles from this Port, with four Algierine Men of War, who have for ſeveral days been Cruiſing on theſe Coaſts, and have taken divers ſmall Veſſels. This day we received advice, That the French have taken and carried to Thoulon a great Genoueſe Ship, which lately parted from hence for Spain.

Presbourg, May 12. In our laſt we gave you an account of the Rendezvous of the Imperial Army; Since, the Regiments of the Baron de Becke, and the Baron Richardi, have joyned it, and ſeveral other Regiments are ſaid to be marching to it. The ninth a great Council of War was held here, and the 11th the Imperial Army Decamped, and Marched from Keiſer, by the way of Altenburg, towards Raab, under the Command of the Duke of Lorrain, (who has an abſolute and unlimited power to act as he thinks fit) the Duke of Saxe-Lawenburg commanding the Right, and the Count de Caprara the Left Wing of the Horſe, and the Count de Staremberg being General of the Foot. The ſame day their Imperial Majeſties, the Archdutcheſs, and the Elector of Bavaria, returned from hence to Laxemburg.

Vienna, May 13. The Imperial Court is returned from Hungary to Laxemburg where a great Entertainment will be made on Monday next for the Elector of Bavaria. The 11th Inſtant the Imperial Army Decamped from Keiſer, and Marched towards Raab, the Duke of Lorrain having deſigned a Camp between that place and Comorra. From Hungary we have advice, That the Grand-Vizier arrived the firſt Inſtant, with the main Body of the Ottoman Army, at Greicks-Weiſſenburg; That the Grand-Signior is not expected there till the 20th; That the general Rendezvous is appointed to be held the 24th of this Month near Belgrade, and that in the mean time the Turks have formed a Camp of 20 or 25000 Men near Newheuſel. The advices from Poland give us an account, That that King will be in the Field before the end of the next Month. Count Lamberg, the Emperor's Envoy to the Electors of Brandenburg and Saxony, has received Orders to haſten his departure. We are told, That the Emperor will remove the next Month to Prague or Lintz, and that the Empreſs will lye in at one of thoſe places. Count Teckeley's Secretary continues ſtill here.

Ratisbonne, May 17. The Colledge of Electors has not as yet given any Anſwer to the Paper delivered to them by the Imperial Commiſſioner the Biſhop of Aichſtadt, concerning the Difference now depending between the ſaid Colledge and that of the Princes. The Letters we receive from Hungary inform us, That on the ſixth inſtant the general Rendezvous of the Imperial Army was held within half a mile from Presbourg; That it conſiſted of 37000 effective Men, well cloathed, and in good order, with a Train of Artillery of 70 Pieces of Cannon; That 4 or 5 Regiments more were on their march to joyn the Army, which will then amount to 40000 fighting Men. That the 11th the Imperial Court parted again from Presbourg, and that the ſame day the Army decamped, and marched towards Raab. The Letters add, that a Body of 25000 Turks is encamped near Newheuſel.

Hamburg, May 18. The Magiſtrates of this City have reſolved to haſten the new Fortifications they are making. From Copenhagen they write, that Monſieur Mortangis the French Ambaſſador has received Orders to return home, and that the Marquiſs de Villars, who was formerly Ambaſſador in Spain, is appointed by the Moſt Chriſtian King to ſucceed him. From Poland they write, That the new Levies are making in that Kingdom with great diligence.

Cologne, May 21. The Biſhop of Strasbourg intends to part from hence to morrow for Francfort, and from thence for Strasbourg, where the moſt Chriſtian King is expected the beginning of the next Month. They write from thence that they are making a great Way between Befort and Hunningen, for which purpoſe a great many Country People are daily at work.

Bruſſels, May 25. The Marquiſs de Grana parted from hence on Sunday laſt for Antwerp; being arrived
